Dear Police Chief Danilynn Miller,

Greetings from San Francisco. My mom and I were former friends of Tony and Madlynn Pizza, and I would like to file a police report for elder abuse in Sylvania, Ohio. There is no police response required.

In 2013, the elder abuse documentation begins, and the elder abuse is continued and ongoing. In 2021, my mom moved from Sylvania to San Diego, and I will also be filing a report with the San Diego County Sheriff.

Trauma begets trauma, and my mom is not able to advocate for herself. I believe that Prosecutor Tony Pizza would have pursued these elder abuse cases, and I hope that Prosecutor Julia Bates will file Protective Orders against Suoeja Kummar (S.K. Financial) and Frank Jacobs (Eastman & Smith) on behalf of my mom.

The logical reasoning is presented in the section titled "Supplementary Notes to Prosecutor Julia Bates and Prosecutor Summer Stephan" at the following URL: https://archive.org/details/20040103-deepak-moorjani-lucas-county-prosecutor-anthony-pizza

In May 1998, Suzanne Stolar facilitated Dr. Zubie Moorjani's escape from her abusive relationship, and Dr. Zubie Moorjani moved into an emergency call room at Riverside Hospital for nine months. Concurrently, Anthony Pizza and Madlynn Pizza provided her with room and board at their home at 628 East Shoreline Drive, Holland, Ohio 43528. Subsequent to Anthony Pizza's passing, Madlynn Pizza moved into Dr. Zubie Moorjani's neighborhood (Quarrys Edge, Sylvania, Ohio) to maintain proximity.

Until 2004, my mom and I spent many Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays with Tony and Madlynn Pizza and their family. In 2004, I moved to Tokyo with Morgan Stanley's private equity investment operation. Tony Pizza was adamant in his refusal to use email, and this made long-distance communication difficult.

In March 2023, I reported my father for domestic violence with the Rossford Police Department. This domestic violence case did not require a police response; therefore, this cold case was booked as a civil case, and this case was filed as a CAD report (Rossford Police Department CAD report 2023-024092). This was facilitated by Officer Mark Skala (ret.), a friend and former classmate at St. John's High School.
